

Spend Christmas in romantic surroundings at The Sarojin

20 October 2011

Experience the beauty and romance from the famous hospitality of Lady Sarojin, the eldest daughter and mistress of the Sarojin house with this wonderful Christmas Special from 01 - 26 December 2011.

Hiding behind the secluded 11km of white beach and ensconced within 10 acres of lush tropical gardens the award-winning 5 star hotel has recently received the accolade “Wine Spectator Award of Excellence for 2011” and was named “Winner of The World Luxury Romantic Hotel Award 2011”. And for that reason, The Sarojin cannot wait to treat you with outstanding cuisine and hospitality, as you immerse yourself in a Christmas holiday you’ll never forget.

This luxurious property boasts an impressive range of amenities, which together delivers a decadent holiday experience for couples. The Sarojin delights in creating the ultimate concierge dining experience, and the cuisine for the Christmas season can be enjoyed anywhere throughout the resort. Perhaps on a private charter aboard Lady Sarojin; or in a setting for two by a waterfall surrounded by candlelight. Sea kayak at sunset to a secret location for oysters and champagne, or dine romantically on your own private island surrounded by flaming torches in the moonlight. All is possible, at The Sarojin.

For Christmas Eve, The Sarojin will offer a true culinary adventure as well as capturing your dining pleasure for the evening with eggnog in hand. After your Christmas pudding with brandy custard and sherry jam, engage in the beautiful Thai tradition of kom loy (spirit lantern) where you will release lanterns that capture and carry your seasonal wishes, thoughts or prayers to the skies.

All guest residences offer a bonus night. Pay for five nights and receive the sixth night free, and this escalates for longer stays. All day a la carte breakfast with sparkling wine is included.
