

“WORLD LUXURY ROMANTIC HOTEL” WINNER, THE SAROJIN, INTRODUCES FANTASTIC TREATS FOR CHRISTMAS!

2 December 2009 – Put some extra sparkle into your festive season and celebrate Christmas and New Year at the most romantic luxury hotel in the world. Why not swap the traditional fir tree for an ancient Ficus tree; escape the melee of crowds for a tropical resort retreat and discard those winter woollies for the warmth and sunny smiles of The Sarojin's fabulous hospitality.

Recognized as the “World Luxury Romantic Hotel 2009” in the World Luxury Hotel Awards, held in Bangkok on Friday 27th November, this deluxe 56 residence resort is the perfect choice for an exceptional Christmas for you and your loved one. Guests can be assured of incomparable service from the team of personal guides and the elegant and inspired ‘imagineer’, the ultimate personal concierge, well versed in creating tailor made adventures ‘just for two’. Whether celebrating a special anniversary, planning to pop the question or simply in need of some romance, relaxation and adventure, let The Sarojin take care of Christmas.

Enjoy gourmet cuisine and an award winning wine cellar with over 200 vintages from both the old and new worlds and take advantage of their Amazing Value Luxury Escape Experience; from now until 24 Dec and from 6 Jan – 19 Apr 2010, for every 5 nights booked, guests enjoy an extra night free of charge...for ten nights booked, its two nights free making a wonderful value added holiday.

The gastronomic delights begin on Christmas Eve with pre-dinner drinks in the garden followed by a sumptuous 5 course dinner under the night sky. Eggnog and musical entertainment add to the merriment and guests are invited to release a kom loy, or spirit lantern - said to capture and carry seasonal wishes and prayers to the gods - adding to the magic of the occasion. This special Christmas Eve dinner is priced at THB4, 500, plus service and tax, per person (approximately USD 129; Euro 91; AUD 147; GBP 83)

Christmas Day is kept splendidly casual with a barbecue feast poolside, cocktails wines and relaxation...

And for New Year's Eve the night begins with sparkling wine and cocktails in the flame-lit courtyard. An exquisite variety of food stations serving Asian, Thai and Western cuisine, are set up around the poolside and a live band provides the essential live entertainment for the countdown to the New Year... As the night progresses, guests are invited to re-locate to The Sarojin's beach front which is transformed into an after dinner dance lounge. Under starry skies and with the Andaman Sea as a backdrop, fireworks and kom loy lanterns mark the passing of another year. This New Years Eve, Let's Dine, Let's Dance 2010! package is priced at THB 7,400 plus tax and service per person (approximately USD 211; Euro 149; AUD 243; GBP 136)

One of the finest resort properties in Asia, The Sarojin specialises in offering exceptional "Just for two" experiences ranging from pure relaxation to jungle excursions and sea kayak adventures. Additional offers include The Sarojin Suite Value Offer, valid year round (excludes 21 Dec 09 - 10 Jan 2010.) Guests who stay 6 nights or more in a Sarojin Suite can enjoy either a complimentary elephant trek "just for 2" and one 60 minutes spa massage per person; OR, one 4 hour "nature's midday haven" spa experience. Perfect for honeymooners, The Sarojin offers a year-round Honeymoon Offer for 7 nights or more that includes a complimentary bottle of sparkling wine, fruits and flowers on arrival and a Thai dinner experience for 2 persons, served in the privacy of their private guestroom sala.

Lead in rates range from Thai Baht 15,000 (approximately USD 429; Euro 303; AUD 491; GBP 275) per room per night for 2 persons sharing, and include all taxes. Its 56 residences are all beautifully appointed and complimentary extras include a daily fruit basket, in guest residence beverages and snacks, Wi-Fi broadband internet; , CDs, DVDs and books from the resort library, the use of mountain bikes, water sports, the use of their Pathways Spa and fitness centre. For those wanting to explore, there is also a regular daily return shuttle bus in to Khao Lak town.

The Sarojin is surrounded by national parks, with Phang Nga Bay and the Similan Islands close by. In 2009 its Pathways Spa was voted as one of the world's top three favourite spas in the Condé Nast Traveller Readers' Awards, and Ficus restaurant was awarded the Wine Spectator award for the second consecutive year. Inspired by the mythical Lady Sarojin, daughter of a Thai nobleman renowned for his household's warmth and graciousness, The Sarojin aims to reflect this legacy of exceptional service and hospitality.

The World Luxury Hotel Awards are the most exclusive luxury hotel awards, setting the benchmark for world class facilities and service excellence. The Awards were established to congratulate hotels that have taken the extra step and differentiated themselves from "good hotels" to "exceptional hotels".

For further information and images on The Sarojin please contact:
dos@sarojin.com T +66 76 427 900 F +66 76 427 906