

February 2007

The Imagineer
Jowell Philemond – Montout

there is only one limit: our guests' imaginations

La joie de vivre; creation; escapism; an illusion or reality?

Born in Martinique, the Caribbean, Jowell Philemond – Montout, The Sarojin's Imagineer, is a born creator, a host and dream maker. For much of his life, dancing has been his passion, traveling the globe on world tours and thereafter joining the famed Moulin Rouge for 15 years.

Jowell is a person who delights in helping others attain a keen enjoyment of living or "la joie de vivre"; - a freedom to relax and to "just be". Early on he found this for himself through his dance work. He also saw the freedom and inspiration others found through him - whether it be in their souls as they watched his routines or in their body and hearts as he taught them steps. In his role as The Sarojin's imagineer, he delights in sharing his own inspiring joie de vivre once again. Playing host, he welcomes all to The Sarojin and using his in-depth knowledge of The Sarojin and surrounding areas, he helps tailor-make days to suit each and every guest's tastes and imaginations. Jowell makes it his personal goal to fulfil guests' every whim creating a guest experience in line with The Sarojin's uniqueness of offering "more than a resort - a holiday, not just a hotel." A private charter on the luxury boat The Lady Sarojin? A personal jungle champagne adventure à deux? Or a romantic private barbecue on The Sarojin's own secluded white beach ... there is only one limit: our guests' imaginations.

Jowell joined The Sarojin in December 2006. The Sarojin opened October 2005.