About The Sarojin:

The Sarojin is a luxury boutique hotel, which opened its doors on 1st October 2005. Located in Khao Lak, just one hour north of Phuket Airport, The Sarojin is a 56 room property offering plunge pools, spa pools, intimate couples baths, rainfall showers, private gardens, spa, fitness facilities, dining tables set in extraordinary locations and its own team of guides, a luxury boat and fleet of cars. The Sarojin is the vision of the well travelled directors of WhiteKaps Resort Co. Ltd - a registered Thai company with investors from Thailand, Hong Kong, Singapore and the UK - and the concept behind this intimate hotel is that it offers an experience reminiscent of staying at friend's private estate rather than at an 'international resort.' The Sarojin won "Asia's Leading Boutique Hotel" at the World Travel Awards 2006 and is included in Condé Nast Traveler USA's 'Hot List Hotels and Spas for 2006'.

For its community work, The Sarojin was awarded the "Past District Governor Sir Kenneth Fung Ping Fan - Rotary Club of Hong Kong International Service Award 2006". The Sarojin has established 'The Sarojin Khao Lak Community Fund' and 100% of the fund will be distributed to community projects in the Khao Lak area. Projects include fishing boats; housing; Red Cross; new school buildings; children's play and educational equipment; and orphanage support.
