

THE SAROJIN

The Sarojin is an award winning luxury boutique resort that offers extraordinary experiences and exceptional personal services "just for 2". Named after the mythical Lady Sarojin, daughter of a prominent Thai nobleman renowned as the perfect host, its warm and friendly hospitality is reminiscent of "staying at a friend's private estate". Bordered by five national parks, three 18 hole golf courses and the dive sanctuaries of the Similan and Surin Islands, it is located in stunning Khao Lak Phang Nga province, just an hour drive from Phuket's international airport.

A dedicated fleet of luxury cars transfer guests to the 56 residence property. Designed in a contemporary Asian style the resort blends seamlessly with the local landscape and is set within 10 areas of landscaped grounds with a giant Ficus tree and reflective lotus pond at its heart. Guests can enjoy direct access to 11 kilometres of spectacular white sand beach and the crystalline waters of the Andaman Sea. There's year-round swimming, a comprehensive range of water sports, mountain biking and lawn croquet. A dedicated spa haven, Pathways, offers customised treatments to restore and re-balance body and soul, and is complemented by a stunning infinity swimming pool and fitness centre.

The guest residences are wonderfully private and spacious with king size beds and luxurious bathrooms. Features include private gardens and "sala" sundecks, intimate couples' baths, rainfall showers, and a range of complimentary in room facilities that include CD, DVD, minibar and Wi-Fi. Pool Residences feature an additional plunge pool 3.5m x 5.5m, whilst the truly luxurious Sarojin Suites feature a separate very spacious living area and outdoor stone relaxation pool.

Books can be borrowed from a private library and swim wear and sarongs purchased from the boutique. As children below the age of 12 are not permitted, The Sarojin is perfect for couples, making it an ideal choice for intimate weddings, luxurious honeymoons, romantic escapes and special celebrations.

A choice of two restaurants under an age old ficus tree and by the beach provide for a delightful range of traditional and contemporary cuisine and The Sarojin offers its guests an array of private dining locations, such as candle lit dinners by a jungle waterfall or gourmet picnic lunches on the beach. An award winning cellar collection featuring some 200 wines from around the globe, with multiple varieties served by the glass, make any meal a celebration. Combined with the chefs' passion for cuisine excellence, dining at The Sarojin is a daily ritual of gastronomic delights.

What makes a stay at The Sarojin particularly distinctive is its ability to create unique guest experiences, courtesy of a truly dedicated team and the unique role of the Imagineer. The ultimate personal concierge, The Sarojin's Imagineer utilises his intimate knowledge of the resort's stunning surroundings and combines it with the facilities of this exclusive resort to create incredible tailor made experiences. These life long memories may range from spectacular jungle adventures, unique culinary expeditions, trips on the luxury Lady Sarojin yacht and exhilarating excursions in Phang Nga Bay National Marine Park...

As an area of outstanding natural beauty, Khao Lak is the perfect backdrop for The Sarojin. Meaning "mountain by the sea" the area is famous for its pure white beaches, cascading waterfalls, dramatic limestone formations and spectacular lagoons and it is home to some of the oldest primary forest in the world. The historic old town of Takuapa is an additional attraction with its former Governor's residence and traditional teak houses.

Whether celebrating a marriage, renewing vows, or enjoying magical moments with loved ones, any stay at The Sarojin is sure to be special and with memories to last a lifetime.

www.sarojin.com

