FAVOURITE HOTEL

Prestonfield near Edinburgh is gloriously opulent; like a romantic, rich pudding of a hotel. Gorgeous. Hotel Pelirocco in Brighton is quite different but dear to my heart: low-key, funky and naughty. We always stay there if we're down that way and try a different room each time. prestonfield.com and hotelpelirocco.co.uk

TOP DESTINATION?

Walberswick in Suffolk is the most magical getaway. I've been going since I was a child – I proposed to my wife on the beach there. Timelessly beautiful.

DREAM ESCAPE?

Well, I've always wanted to take my wife to a log cabin by a remote lake in Finland and run from plunge-pool to sauna...

TOP TRAVEL TIP?

Always have a glass of champagne at the airport.

ANYTHING BUT BACKWARDS

The Llanroc: the name of this brand-new bolt hole may be 'Cornwall' in reverse, but when its 18 rooms, restaurant and pub open, we're expecting a feel that's fully fashion-forward. thellanrochotel.co.uk

HOTEL OF THE YEAR

As a judge for the winner of this award from World Architecture News, I was delighted Saffire in Tasmania won thanks to its ingenious organic stingray shape that sits in harmony with this spectacular part of Australia. saffire-freycinet.com.au
