Jetset Extra rides elephants while visiting the Sarojin Resort in Phuket, Thailand. Dawid Koegelenberg, the resort manager, says that Thailand is one of only a few countries where you can ride an elephant to a remote destination. Those who don't want to go for a two-hour ride can take a shorter trip and swim with the massive beasts.

The mahouts, or drivers, are with the elephants 24 hours a day so they have a special relationship.
