Spiritual Blessing of Love

Sunrise Alms Giving “Tak Bat” & Spiritual Blessing at the Temple

THB 1,100 per person - 'just for 2' 06.30am—08.00am

For centuries monks and novices have left their Temples everyday and walked through the town accepting alms from the local townsfolk; a way for people to gain merit and for the monastic community to maintain contact with their community. Locals place rice and other foods into their alms bowls before the monks return to their Temples with the collected food for breakfast.

Bright and early we take you to give alms with locals at the local market. Here you will see travelling monks offering blessings to the Buddhist community. You will also experience the Thai market in “full swing” as locals come to purchase their daily groceries. After this we visit one of our favourite pagodas and receive a blessing from a very important local monk.

Offering a small basket of items to the monks is a sign of respect, and the monk returns his thanks with a blessing. This consists of a monk gently pouring water over you to cleanse your spirit whilst chanting ancient Pali-Sanskrit - ‘mantras’. You will feel lighter and remarkably calm by this simple, but spiritual, event.

The walking meditation occurs at first light when the community wakes up and the day is just starting. We invite you to join us for this contemplative and spiritual experience...

The Sarojin Khao Lak Community Fund ♦ Community Projects

The Sarojin Khao Lak Community Fund was established in December 2004 and is dedicated to supporting the local community and environment.

Two community projects The Sarojin has had a long partnership with are the Baan Than Namchai Orphanage and Camillian Social Centre. The Sarojin provides complimentary transfers for guests who would like to visit to learn more about these projects and the work done.

Baan Than Namchai Orphanage, Sat- Sun 12.30-14.00

Set up as an immediate response to the December 2004 tsunami The Sarojin has worked with the orphanage since January 2005. Children ages range from 14 months to 21 years. Donations of essential items from a recommended shopping list for rice, cooking oil, sugar, fish sauce etc. are very welcome. The Sarojin operates a hotel trainee scheme for some of the older children and rice bags are saved to create innovative bags available at the orphanage shop. More than ten years on and some real success stories are appearing with older children studying at university, acting as role models for the younger ones; fueling their dreams and ambitions together to become lawyers, doctors, pilots, teachers. An overriding theme is that these children are keen to give back.

Camillian Social Centre, Mon-Wed-Fri 12.30-14.30

Camillian Social Centre provides day care and rehabilitation for children with disabilities including physical disabilities, autism and down's syndrome. Ages range from 4 -16 years. It is the only centre providing care for downs syndrome in Phang Nga province. The Sarojin has worked with the Camillian Centre since September 2012. Guests are welcome to visit, joining with the centre staff and volunteers to assist with arts and crafts sessions with the children or join with The Sarojin Chef on a local street food tour and street food cooking class and donate lunch for the children and staff at the centre.
